n a fantastic year for Lush. We received an incredible reception pot EP and the three beautiful career-spanning 4AD releases, s undhouse shows, toured North America with great success and our European festival appearances. It's been wonderful to revisi sic and to create new material.

er, it is now time for us to return to our families and homes, and e together as a band to a close. We offer heartfelt thanks to all his reunion would never have happened without your overwhel t and dedication.

ld like to take this opportunity to announce that, for our last-ev nance at Manchester Academy on November 25th, Emma, Miki i will be joined by former 4AD label mate Michael Conroy, bass pl lern English. As with Justin's involvement, Michael playing with pECIAL significance for us as he was a very close friend of Chris's to announce the departure of Phil King from I no longer be able to appear at the Iceland Airwa der festivals - massive apologies to everyone w ng us play there. We are in the process of acqu d look forward to our final show at Manchester .

LIGHT FROM A DEAD STAR He lives his life in a world full of women And he takes what he wants from their love And he throws the rest away I cling to him and pray But still he slips away And now it's just too late To wish him back again She won't put up with this life so she leaves him And she finds someone else, falls in love And she travels far away I say that it's ok And swallow all my pain And now it's just too late To wish her back again They left me here on my own in a nightmare And I just can't forgive any more So I smile and turn away Don't listen when they say They wish that I could stay And now it's just too late To wish me back again

KISS CHASE Tiny children on their own they learn so fast How to make new friends how to play their new games I remember a man he had shiny hair Always hanging around when you went away Little eight year old, she knows too many secrets Much too young to understand what it means I remember a woman with silver hair And the smell and the taste of the bed we shared And that's how I behaved Every time that you went away And now, though I'm older nothing's changed (playing the same games) And I knew every day Came a chance that you'd leave me So I found what I could to take your place Told me not to cry Said that I'd survive As he waved goodbye And I want to try Not to make you cry Want us to survive never say goodbye - you know i behaved when you go away Because though I'm older nothing's changed (playing the same games)

 And I know every day There's a chance that you'll leave me - So I find what I can to take your place
BLACKOUT I'm not interested in what you have to say You're just a vacant space Other people's lives upon which you prey It's a permanent disgrace Why do you think you know what's best for me? What I should and shouldn't do Why do you judge my history?
 And tell me to improve In the confines of your mind You think we're all the same I've left them all behind Though you wish I hadn't In finding fault in others I can't see What you have to gain I know that you get pleasure from Other people's pain You're not so perfect and I realise the scene That you're all coming from - When you say you care I know what you mean You're really lying All the people around here Love to hear about a fall They all surface and disappear In an instant In the confines of your mind You think we're all the same I've left them all behind Though you wish I hadn't
HYPOCRITE A silly girl I run around and never know my reasons An though you're laughing with me I know what you say about me I can't explain, it's not your business anyway So don't say you understand And don't pretend you're on my side And I remember when you hated her for sleeping next to him I see your smiling face but I know you've done worse to me You hypocrite, don't talk to me
 'Cause you're not fit to know me So don't pretend That you could've ever been a friend - And still I'm sure you think it's ok What you've done to me 'Cause I'm so bad to him Don't even try to hide behind that stupid lie I know your kind and I know where your loyalties lie The silly girls we run around and never know our reasons And though I understand I guess I'll say that you betrayed me I'm a hypocrite, I dish it out but I can't take it I know you think it's wrong And maybe you're right but this is my song And still I'm sure you think it's ok What she did to me 'cause I'm so bad to him Don't even try to hide behind that stupid smile I know our kind and I know where our loyalties lie

LOVELIFE You are the one
 In your concrete arms I adore you Dirty and dear Block out the sun In your twists and turns I invade You show me no fear We blow around like tiny leaves in a big storm Finding there's nothing left to breathe or to keep warm You ebb and flow and your rhythm beats my head Leave me alone while you swallow up your dead You are the one You cradle me and kill Caressing my face Leave me undone You suffocate and have me This is the place Every door conceals a dream and a nightmare Nothing is ever really pure in the stale air And when it's dark everything becomes more clear Lie in the park when I want to have you near You are the one In your concrete arms I adore you Dusty and dear Block out the sun In your twists and turns I invade You show me no fear Left it unsung I shall leave but I'll return Poison my lungs, my blood is full of lead Things unsaid My love for you still burns DESIRE LINES It's raining in this room And it's so hot outside this room I don't know no one here I don't want to be here In this room We hold parties in our sleep We fill ourselves up in our sleep And I'll heal you when you're ill Though it's hard keeping still In our sleep Prise the hair out of her mouth Whilst the circus is heading south While we search in the sand Don't ask them to understand Why they cover up their hands And their mouths THE INVISIBLE MAN Oooh Outside you are waiting for me, hiding You catch me when I am Needing a friend to hold You can soothe me, lie above me Press hard Then you strike And I think that I'll die 'Cause I can't breathe, can't breathe Please let me start screaming Please let me start screaming Please let me start screaming Oooh Please let me start screaming Eyes are open seeing nothing Hands are tied and I can't function Please let me start screaming UNDERTOW So you want to be alone Run and hide inside your home Watch you fall away from me Sinking into misery Taste your smile and hold my hand Make you laugh and make you dance I remember this Everything was in our kiss Sink my hands into the sea Reach your fingers up to me trust me one more time I can only try Throw yourself to me And I'll try to pull you free Let me try to pull you free NEVER NEVER Only children sometimes comprehend Loneliness can often be a friend Have to shut yourself in Don't know how to begin Telling it someone Who doesn't fit in I am sunken in biology I cannot control that part of me I don't want to hurt you But I know I will do Maybe we can find but what are we to do? I don't have long fingernails to use. Would we care if we were black and blue?

 We're both sick but still you hold my hand. We're together but I understand. Walk along the seaside.
 This is not a joyride. Tell me in the meantime. It's okay LIT UP. You feel like I do. Like the whole world's forgotten you. And your life is so dull and predictable. Your room seems like a cell. And you don't sleep very well. And your friends only talk to point and to mock. And to ridicule. One day things won't seem the same way, I know. Morning in the mirror. Things will suddenly seem much clearer. I promise, it's alright. His words don't flatter me. And they're printed for all to see. I don't care, he's not there. It's all history. The future's yours to hold. And you're really not very old. And your life is so white, so clean and so bright.
 And holds mystery. Morning in the mirror. Things will suddenly seem much clearer. I promise it's alright.
 One day things won't seem the same way, I know.
STARLUST Walking at midnight. In the darkness, alone.
 Standing in the shadows. And I'm watching your glow. Standing in the red light. And I'm smiling at you.
 Dreaming of the starlight. Just waiting for you. I'll do anything to Make you mine, make me shine.
 Take me if you want me. I don't care,
 I don't mind. I want your starlight.
 Make it mine, make me shine.
 Touch me with your light. And I'll burn like a star WHEN I DIE.
 If you walked in now. I wouldn't start. I wouldn't frown. And if you just appeared. I wouldn't cry or think it weird. 'Cause you are still around. You're in the air, you're in the ground And you can't go away

 I am afraid you're here to stay Friends don't understand They close the door, they raise their hands She says she hears your voice Of course she does, she has no choice I was hours ahead When they removed you from your bed They drank all the while Until you said goodbye Why are we sitting here in ourselves? I don't look up, I don't look down I look ahead and make no sound My love was there, I only stare Healthy in my dreams Is what you are is what it seems What does it all mean? You're only hiding behind a screen Curse the English day For what it forces us to say Banish all the pain 'Cause when I die, die I'll see you again

 DEAD STAR

He lives his life in a world full of women And he takes what he wants from their love And he throws the rest away I cling to him and pray But still he slips away And now it's just too late To wish him back again She won't put up with this life so she leaves him And she finds someone else, falls in love And she travels far away I say that it's ok And swallow all my pain And now it's just too late To wish her back again They left me here on my own in a nightmare And I just can't forgive any more So I smile and turn away Don't listen when they say They wish that I could stay And now it's just too late To wish me back again

KISS CHASE

Tiny children
 on their own they learn so fast How to make new friends how to play their new games I remember a man he had shiny hair Always hanging around when you went away Little eight year old, she knows too many secrets Much too young to understand what it means I remember a woman with silver hair And the smell and the taste of the bed we shared And that's how I behaved Every time that you went away And now, though I'm older nothing's changed (playing the same games) And I knew every day Came a chance that you'd leave me So I found what I could to take your place Told me not to cry Said that I'd survive As he waved

do Why do you judge my history?
And tell me to improve In the
all behind Though you wish I hadn't
In finding fault in others I can't see
What you have to gain I know that
you get pleasure from Other
people's pain You're not so perfect
and I realise the scene That you're
all coming from When you say you
really lying All the people around here Love to hear about a fall
mind You think we're all the same I've left them all behind Though
you wish I hadn't
around and never know my reasons
An though you're laughing with me
I know what you say about me I
can't explain, it's not your business
anyway So don't say you
understand And don't pretend
you're on my side And I remember
when you hated her for sleeping
next to him I see your smiling face
but I know you've done worse to me
You hypocrite, don't talk to me
'Cause you're not fit to know me So
don't pretend That you could've
sure you think it's ok What you've
done to me 'Cause I'm so bad to
that stupid lie I know your kind and
know our reasons And though I
understand I guess I'll say that you
betrayed me I'm a hypocrite, I dish
it out but I can't take it I know you
right but this is my song And still

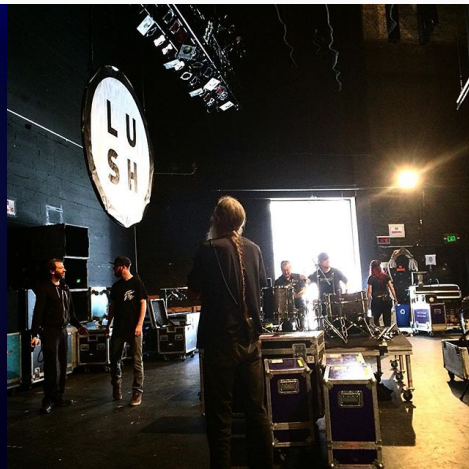

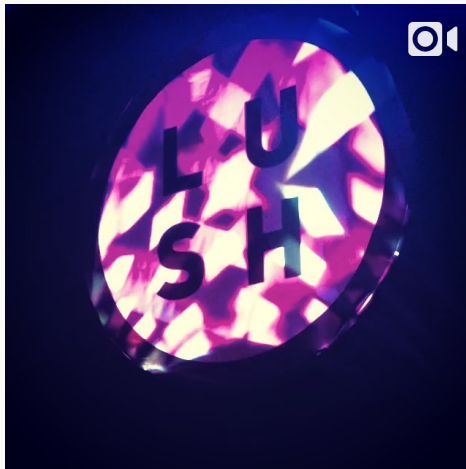

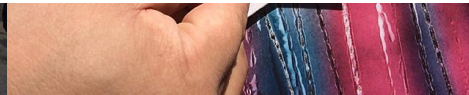

I'm sure you think it's ok What she did to me 'cause I'm so bad to him Don't even try to hide behind that stupid smile I know our kind and I know where our loyalties lie

 In your concrete arms I adore you Dirty and dear Block out the sun In your twists and turns I invade You show me no fear We blow around like tiny leaves in a big storm Finding there's nothing left to breathe or to keep warm You ebb and flow and your rhythm beats my head Leave me alone while you swallow up your dead
 You are the one
 You cradle me and kill Caressing my face Leave me undone You suffocate and have me
 This is the place Every door conceals a dream and a nightmare Nothing is ever really pure in the stale air
 And when it's dark everything becomes more dear Lie in the park when I want to have you near
 You are the one
 In your concrete arms I adore you Dusty and dear Block out the sun
 In your twists and turns I invade
 You show me no fear
 Left it unsung I shall leave but I'll return Poison my lungs, my blood is full of lead Things unsaid My love for you still burns

DESIRE LINES It's raining in this room And it's so hot outside this room
 I don't know no one here
 I don't want to be here
 In this room We hold parties in our sleep We fill ourselves up in our sleep
 And I'll heal you when you're ill Though it's hard keeping still
 In our sleep
 Prise the hair out of her mouth
 Whilst the circus is heading south
 While we search in the sand Don't ask them to understand Why they cover up their hands
 And their mouths

THE INVISIBLE MAN Yeah Outside you are waiting for me, hiding You catch me when I am Needing a friend to hold You can soothe me, lie above me Press hard Then you strike And I think that I'll die 'Cause I can't breathe, can't breathe Please let me start screaming Please let me start screaming Please let me start screaming Daah Please let me start screaming Eyes are open seeing nothing Hands are tied and I can't function Please let me start screaming UNDERTOW So you want to be alone Run and hide inside your home Watch you fall away from me Sinking into misery Taste your smile and hold my hand Make you laugh and make you dance I remember this Everything was in our kiss Sink my hands into the sea Reach your fingers up to me Trust me one more time I can only try Throw yourself to me And I'll try to pull you free Let me try to pull you free NEVER NEVER Only children sometimes comprehend Loneliness can often be a friend Have to shut yourself in Don't know how to begin Telling if someone Who doesn't fit in I am sunken in biology I cannot control that part of me I don't want to hurt you But I know I will do Maybe we can find out What are we to do? I don't have long fingernails to use Would we care if we were black and blue? We're both sick but still you hold my hand We're together but I understand Walk along the seaside This is not a joyride Tell me in the meantime It's okay LIT UP You feel like I do Like the whole world's forgotten you And your life is so dull and predictable Your room seems like a cell And you don't sleep very well And your

 things won't seem the same way, I
 know Morning in the mirror Things
 will suddenly seem much clearer I
 promise, it's alright His words
 don't flatter me And they're
 printed for all to see I don't care,
 he's not there It's all history The
 really not very old And your life is
 And holds mystery Morning in the
 mirror Things will suddenly seem
 much clearer I promise it's alright
 One day things won't seem the
 same way, I know
 midnight In the darkness, alone
 watching your glow Standing in the red light And I'm smiling at you
 waiting for you I'll do anything to Make you mine, make me shine
 Take me if you want me I don't care,
 I don't mind I want your starlight
 Make it mine, make me shine
 Touch me with your light And I'll
 burn like a star WHEN I DIE If you walked in new I wouldn't start I wouldn't frown And if you
 around You're in the air, you're in
 the ground And you can't go away
 I am afraid you're here to stay
 voice Of course she does, she has no choice I was hours ahead When
 They drank all the while Until you
 said goodbye Why are we sitting
 here in ourselves? I don't look up,
 I don't look down I look ahead and

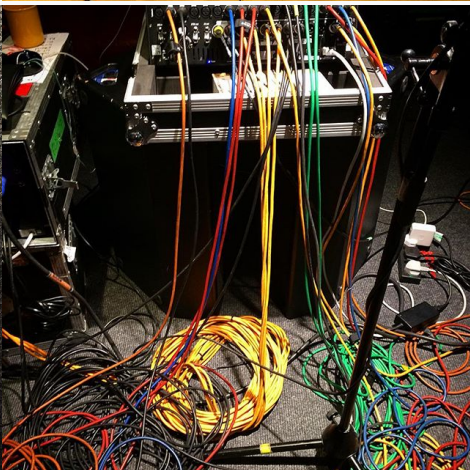

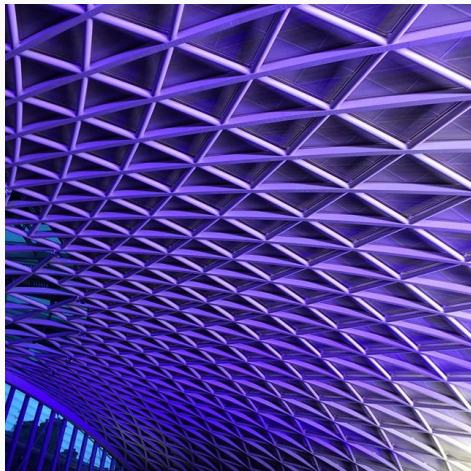

make no sound My love was there,
 I only stare Healthy in my dreams
 Is what you are is what it seems
 say Banish all the pain 'Cause
 when I die, die I'll see you again

LIGHT FROM A DEAD STAR

He lives his life
 love And he throws the rest away I
 cling to him and pray But still he
 slips away And now it's just too
 late To wish him back again She
 leaves him And she finds someone else, falls in love And she travels
 far away I say that it's ok And
 just too late To wish her back again
 They left me here on my own in a
 nightmare And I just can't forgive
 any more So I smile and turn away Don't listen when they say They
 just too late To wish me back again

KISS CHASE Tiny children
 on their own they learn so fast
 How to make new friends how to
 play their new games I remember
 away Little eight year old, she
 knows too many secrets Much too
 young to understand what it means
 hair And the smell and the taste of
 the bed we shared And that's how
 older nothing's changed (playing
 the same games) And I knew every
 day Came a chance that you'd
 leave me So I found what I could to

on their own they learn so fast
How to make new friends how to
play their new games I remember
away Little eight year old, she
knows too many secrets Much too
young to understand what it means
hair And the smell and the taste of
the bed we shared And that's how
older nothing's changed (playing
the same games) And I knew every
day Came a chance that you'd
take your place Told me not to cry
Said that I'd survive As he waved

changed (playing the same games)
And I know every day There's a chance that you'll leave me So I

interested in what you have to say You're just a vacant space Other people's lives upon which you pray It's a permanent disgrace Why do you think you know what's best for
do Why do you judge my history?
And tell me to improve In the
all behind Though you wish I hadn't
In finding fault in others I can't see
What you have to gain I know that
you get pleasure from Other
people's pain You're not so perfect
all coming from When you say you

Welcome To The Present KOMPAKT Eclectic debut from the globe-trotting Canuck duo, taking in techno pulses and ambient experimentation care i know what you mean you're really lying All the people around here Love to hear about a fall They all surface and disappear In an instant in the confines of your mind You think we're all the same I've left them all behind Though you wish I hadn't

HYPOCRITE A silly girl I run around and never know my reasons An though you're laughing with me I know what you say about me I can't explain, it's not your business anyway So don't say you understand And don't pretend you're on my side And I remember when you hated her for sleeping next to him I see your smiling face but I know you've done worse to me You hypocrite, don't talk to me 'Cause you're not fit to know me So don't pretend That you could've ever been a friend And still I'm sure you think it's ok What you've done to me 'Cause I'm so bad to him Don't even try to hide behind that stupid lie I know your kind and I know where your loyalties lie The silly girls we run around and never know our reasons And though I understand I guess I'll say that you betrayed me I'm a hypocrite, I dish it out but I can't take it I know you think it's wrong And maybe you're right but this is my song And still I'm sure you think it's ok What she did to me 'cause I'm so bad to him Don't even try to hide behind that stupid smile I know our kind and I know where our loyalties lie

LOVELIFE You are the one In your concrete arms I adore you Dirty and dear Block out the sun In your twists and turns I invade You show me no fear We blow around like tiny leaves in a big storm Finding there's nothing left to breathe or to keep warm You ebb

Girl in a Band

BBC 4, 10pm
Kate Mossman's excellent documentary is subtitled 'Roles from the Rock n' Roll Frontline' - and what tales they are. The engaging Mossman speaks to a vast array of awesome female musicians including Talking Heads' Tina Weymouth, the Breeders' Kelley Deal and Lush's wonderfully acerbic Miki Berenyi. Fanny's June Millington is delightful about the realities of band life. Viv Albertine recalls how dangerous being in the Slits really was and Lita Ford is honest and sad about the Runaways. Among the best revelations: Gillian Gilbert wrote most of New Order's World in Motion because she was the football fan. Sarah Hughes and flow and your rhythm beats my head Leave me alone while you swallow up your dead

You are the one
You cradle me and kill
Caressing my face
Leave me undone
You suffocate and have me
This is the place Every door conceals a dream and a nightmare
Nothing is ever really pure in the stale air
And when it's dark everything becomes more clear Lie in the park when I want to have you near
You are the one
In your concrete arms I adore you Dusty and dear Block out the sun
In your twists and turns I invade
You show me no fear
Left it unsung I shall leave but I'll return
Poison my lungs, my blood is full of lead Things unsaid
My love for you still burns
DESIRE LINES
It's raining in this room
And it's so hot outside this room
I don't know no one here
I don't want to be here
In this room
We hold parties in our sleep
We fill ourselves up in our sleep
And I'll heal you when you're ill
Though it's hard keeping still
In our sleep
Prise the hair out of her mouth
Whilst the circus is heading south
While we search in the sand
Don't ask them to understand
Why they cover up their hands
And their mouths
THE INVISIBLE MAN
Oooh
Outside you are waiting for me, hiding You catch me when I am Needing a friend to hold You can soothe me, lie above me Press hard
Then you strike
And I think that I'll die
'Cause I can't breathe, can't breathe Please let me start screaming
Please let me start screaming
Please let me start screaming
Oooh
Please let me start screaming Eyes are open seeing nothing Hands are tied and I can't function Please let me start screaming UNDERTOW So you want to be alone Run and hide inside your home Watch you fall away from me Sinking into misery Taste your smile and hold my hand Make you laugh and make you dance I remember this Everything was in our kiss Sink my hands into the sea Reach your fingers up to me Trust me one more time I can only try Throw yourself to me And I'll try to pull you free Let me try to pull you free NEVER NEVER Only children sometimes comprehend Loneliness can often be a friend Have to shut yourself in Don't know how to begin Telling it someone Who doesn't fit in I am sunken in biology I cannot control that part of me I don't want to hurt you But I know I will do Maybe we can find out What are we to do? I don't have long fingernails to use Would we care if we were black and blue? We're both sick but still you hold my hand We're together but I understand Walk along the seaside This is not a joyride Tell me in the meantime It's okay LIT UP You feel like I do Like the whole world's forgotten you And your life is so dull and predictable Your room seems like a cell And you don't sleep very well And your friends only talk to point and to mock And to ridicule One day things won't seem the same way, I know Morning in the mirror Things will suddenly seem much clearer I promise, it's alright His words don't flatter me And they're printed for all to see I don't care, he's not there It's all history The future's yours to hold And you're really not very old And your life is so white, so clean and so bright

And today's mystery morning in the mirror Things will suddenly seem much clearer I promise it's alright One day things won't seem the same way, I know

STARLUST Walking at midnight In the darkness, alone Standing in the shadows And I'm watching your glow Standing in the red light And I'm smiling at you Dreaming of the starlight Just waiting for you I'll do anything to Make you mine, make me shine Take me if you want me I don't care, I don't mind I want your starlight Make it mine, make me shine

Touch me with your light And I'll burn like a star WHEN I DIE If you walked in now I wouldn't start I wouldn't frown And if you just appeared I wouldn't cry or think it weird 'Cause you are still around You're in the air, you're in the ground And you can't go away I am afraid you're here to stay Friends don't understand They close the door, they raise their hands She says she hears your voice Of course she does, she has no choice I was hours ahead When they removed you from your bed They drank all the while Until you said goodbye Why are we sitting here in ourselves? I don't look up, I don't look down I look ahead and make no sound My love was there, I only stare Healthy in my dreams Is what you are is what it seems What does it all mean? You're only hiding behind a screen Curse the English day For what it forces us to say Banish all the pain 'Cause when I die, die I'll see you again
